

Sexual Violence and Harassment

Sexual Violence and Harassment of any kind is not tolerated at JFS. When young people report allegations of sexual violence and harassment we will listen to them and ensure they are heard. If you have been subjected to sexual violence or harassment or if you are a parent/carer worried that your child may have experienced sexual violence or harassment you can speak to the Police, your GP or a member of the Safeguarding or Year team.

For additional guidance on and useful information about Sexual Violence and Harassment please click the links below:

Girlguiding: Sexual harassment - and where to get support | Girlguiding

NHS: Help after rape and sexual assault - NHS \(www.nhs.uk\)

NSPCC: Protecting children from harmful sexual behaviour | NSPCC Learning

Lucy Faithful Foundation: Stop It Now! UK and Ireland | Preventing child sexual abuse

Additional information can be found on the Parental alcohol and drug misuse page.